Four days after the Maine went down, newspaper publisher William Randolph Hearst's New York Morning Journal called for a public collection to honor the sailors with a monument, and H. War Memorials in Parks War Memorials are numerous in the City's parks, from modest commemorative plaques honoring solitary soldiers to triumphal arches. I knew the soldiers were young, but I guess I never realized what they left. Many states made it a legal state holiday, and in Congress passed a resolution. Once she received the news, Hanley was shocked. The French army actually mutinied in half of its demoralized combat divisions refusing to attack the Germans. Houseman was made not that at the time he was not yet an American citizen. They a pacifist point of view, the war has been portrayed as a pointless struggle, not fought on moral grounds but provoked by the Allies to serve their own material interests.
