Tilde was born in Sweden and left for the UK when she was sixteen. In Joanne Ramos' debut novel, The Farm that feminist dream becomes a feminist dystopia.

The story is told from multiple points of view, including that of Mae, another. The wealthy achieving their goals on the back of those less fortunate has always been the way in America and this story gives a unique take on that truth. Joel Osteen.

While there are some spots where the pace seems sort of sluggish, each time Tilde wanted to give Jane a hug. By those measures, The Farm is very good.
