Barriers to care are especially salient in minority communities, where language, traditions and customs, socioeconomics, and access to education can serve as additional roadblocks to accessing health care information and services. And so, here comes Christianity with all the content of the Old Testament and all the high calling of being like Jesus and this holy God and certainly believers were supposed to be different. This Dan J.

Predestination, for example, and election have divided the church over the
