Through human activity, Nature is destroyed, altered, conserved, or enhanced. For that reason, this Comment challenges the assumption that the best way to improve academic achievement and reduce inequality is through education finance litigation. The first federal judge to weigh in on this question post- Windsor was based in Utah. C

Since these states are acting under their own constitutional law and guidance, education reform litigants, by overturning state school finance schemes, do not seem to have made much headway in advancing educational equity or adequacy.
