Item s unavailable for purchase. Well, the fountain-head and beginning of all the troubles, I suppose one must say, was the devil, the hater of good, who always opposes the reasonable 84 flocks of Christ, pitilessly harassing the experienced shepherds with various kinds of torments, just as the King of Egypt treated the male children 32 of the Jews, and seducing the impostors, the false shepherds, with the deceits of earthly pleasures.

Its present title is "An historical dialogue of Palladius, Bishop of Helenopolis". It is now in the collection of the University of Flinders. Palladius wrote his History, as we saw, when he was about fifty-three years old. A Declaration of the Sentiments on Predestination.
