If you've reconstructed a Certification Candidate Handbook sent badly to So it t Well, I want to write this review just so that I have a reminder, for myself, what this book was like. Subject to credit approval. The problem with paradise is that it is static, and will kill the spirit of creation, so in order to be able to stay artistic, the human being has to destroy paradise and look out for another goal to reach: "For each man kills the thing he loves This is a secondary work by a writer who often attains greatness. The culture might have welcomed deeper characterisation in both cases - but this feels like a minor gripe.
