The supporters of the Awakening and its evangelical thrust—PresbyteriansBaptists and Methodists —became the largest American Protestant denominations by the first decades of the 19th century. As the Government of the United States of America is not, in any sense, founded on the Christian religion,—as it has in itself no character of enmity against the laws, religion, or tranquility, of Mussulmen [ Muslims ],—and as the said States never entered into any war or act of hostility against any Mahometan [ Mohammedan ] nation, it is declared by the parties that no pretext arising from religious opinions shall ever produce an interruption of the harmony existing between the two countries.
