Tom is purchased by a hateful plantation owner, Simon Legree, who tries to crush Tom's faith. Think I am talking trash? Stowe's disposition as a child has been described as sad, even depressed. Judgments of the novel's potential to subvert white patriarchal operations—a potential remarked by Papashvily, and celebrated since in Jane Tompkins's account of "sentimental power"—contend with renewed assessments of its conservative and hegemonic character. I mean at least the Nazis were honest about who they . Emerson, "Art". They wish we would all die and go away.
