The idea and the reality of the Global South represent different types of epistemological challenges to the disciplinary identity of comparative constitutional law. And even Central Europe for which Karl Lamers and I have a kind of copyright has always been in our eyes a motor for the unification of Europe and not just an element of separation. Most others do not think that their methods are different from the Western methods. ValentinJeutner-24June, See the text of Art. Cristina Verones - 30 June, This is also true for the irrevocable link-up of the Russians with European and Trans-Atlantic structures which will have to become a central objective of European politics. Other, more comprehensive projects have not yet entered into force or are in hiring situations.
