First off; Claudia Gray knows how to write a damn smexy character, and I could really picture his character and how he looked inside of my head. My story then takes a different fork from the average paranormal romance, not because it takes place in an alternative late Victorian era England but because I also include Jewish elements. The twins took part in numerous antagonistic acts while in town such as killing Boyd and kidnapping Isaac and Erica.

PoorTess, right from the very first chapters he seem to be made into a target. He too is like Neva and very devoted to protecting his family, he has many brothers who are in danger and that are very weak.
