When he came near a house people looked at him with surprise and curiosity and the last thing they expected was that he would go begging; so the words died in his mouth, all the more so as he was not very eloquent, and he was the martyr of his fine coat and suffered from hunger as black as the finest velvet lining. In her eyes happiness and the splendour of the world had crossed her threshold in the person of these two people; uncertain hopes, any part of them, any modest advantage whatsoever to be gained for her or her children animated the good woman and provided her with all the spryness she needed to serve the young people of the high society. Wenzel was sitting with his head in his hands, not Kleider machen Leute (German Edition) to look up.
