I hear my own howl of grief in the bathroom, the gray tiling covering the floor. That fearlessness suffuses this book; she stares unflinchingly at all that is hidden, difficult, strange, unresolvable in herself and others – at loneliness, sexual malice and the devouring, claustrophobic closeness of mothers and daughters. I had a lot of alcohol. It is the only simple decision we make. Does she run around enough? We may then apply our discretion under the user terms to amend or delete comments.
